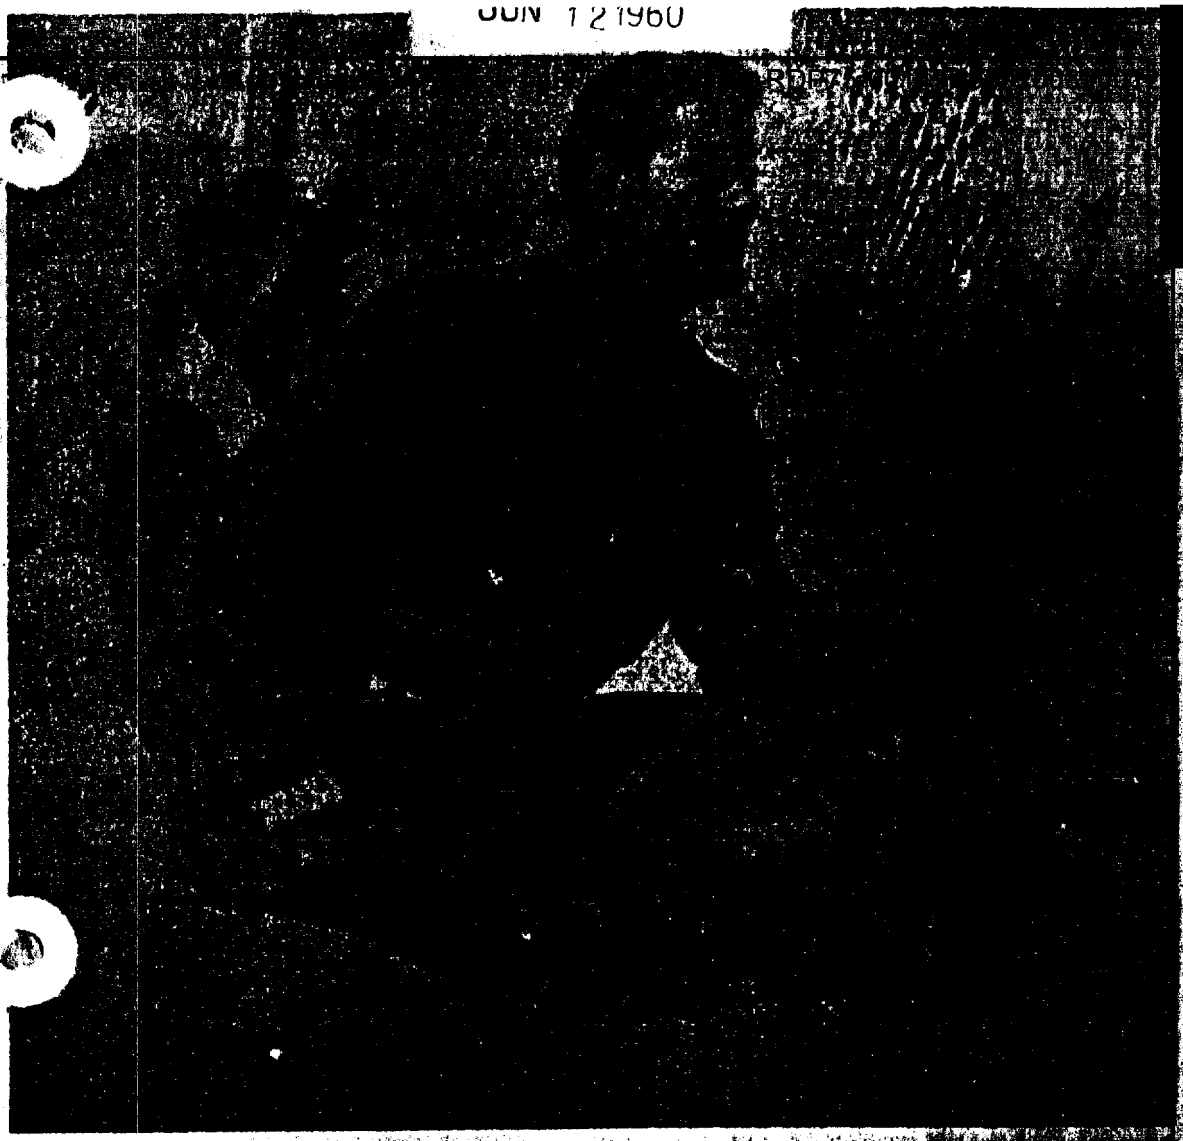
JUN 12 1960



CPYRGHT STATINTL

SOLDIERS of

CPYRGHT CPYRGHT

by JACK ANDERSON

CPYRGHT

Parade Washington correspondent

WASHINGTON, D.C.

"GET UP, you American pig!"

Frank Fiorini dragged himself off the stone floor of Havana police headquarters. On rubbery legs he pulled himself nearly erect.

Crack! A whip caught him across the bare shoulders, already striped with the marks of a lash. Fiorini sagged. He pitched forward onto his knees. As he

The Batista police felt confident they'd last of him.

But two weeks later Frank Fiorini was cloak-and-dagger minister for Castro. He
Air Force chief, Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz L
Mexico to buy arms illegally and smuggle
Castro forces in the Sierra Maestra mount

Today, Fiorini still is up to his neck in disillusioned now with Castro, too, he is bus for his former hero's overthrow. He lives
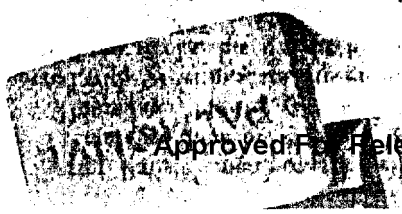
Castro refugees in Miami, and itches to g

"Yo



Approved For Release 1999/09/17 : CIA-RDP75-00149R000200820012-0

Regardless of your age
younger looking the Palmo